

2011 Race Results

Forward on to Box with lower Sheet

JUNIOR FEMALE

Matilda Parolin - fastest female on the slopes at 17, but just pipped at the post by her Dad, Ignazio by only .70 sec's

JUNIOR MALE

J. J. Monester 3rd fastest male on the day, only 1.84 sec's behind his Dad - well done J.J.

ADULT FEMALE

1. Emma Poynton not sure whether The Tracker, recorder at 98 t/h or coming home late from who-har, Emma romps it in!
2. Boo Saust consistency on the slopes does it again - well done Booley!
3. Emma Goethals keeping one in the Chairman's Club, a fast finish by EG.

ADULT MALE

1. Arash Harandian not withstanding his reverse bib, & red jacket, clearly a wet performer in 1st Place AH.

ADULT MALE

2. Tim Watts. a surprise runner, held back to demonstrate clearly potential for next year as a new Patsch member
3. Matthew Baines. following in last years performance. Consistency in all conditions came in 3rd.

MASTERS FEMALE

1. Pauline Rice overcoming a tiring first run, flashed home in her second run to become the Masters Female No. 1.
2. Celia Steedman 2nd place to a very stylish and fashionable racer, well done
3. Danusia Zayler she challenged the course line by taking a sweeping wide berth through heavy conditions, swept home in 3rd place.

MASTERS MALE . . . MARTIN SOUST AUARO

1. Martin Soust Showing remarkable speed, using maximum leg efficiency again came in First with 2 times of 17 seconds . . M.S.

MASTERS MALE

1. Michael Monester . . . ~~injury free~~ ^{}, second fastest time on the day with great course knowledge on Michael wins again ^{}
2. Ignazio Paulini . . . ^{+ competitive nature} with great determination, beat his darling daughter + managed to come in 2nd place
3. Geoff Dixon . . . a later arrival from the operating theatre. In consistency G.D. does it again

* I noted his crouch was not nearly as low ^{as} in the past, perhaps we could call it a "voltaire's crouch", but it paid off on the day

The Innovation in Motion Award

James Dixon

tenacity plus, a 360° at the first gate, 6 seconds faster on his 2nd run

The Snow Bunny Award

Ken Bowes.

for such dedication, involvement & consistency, let alone looking gorgeous on the slopes.

The Late Arrival Award

Susie Cowan

Those wide berths & snow plough turns between gates demonstrated determination to make it to the finish.

Fashion Extravaganza on the Slopes

Martin Jacobsen

entangled in plate & tellemants, washing 1/2 way down, deserves the FE on S.

Benz see Knees Award

Maureen Paulini crashing at the finish gate, being rescued by her daughters, if only she used her knees deserves the B2K Award.

The Excellence Award

Brahm Goethals his first run was a beauty of 22 sec's, however on his 2nd attempt he over reached, disaster struck, and a worthy racer attempting it all... our Champion

The Rising Star Award

Will Conkie coming from famous Ken Bowes stable, W.C. showed glimpses of improved performance to keep the family name going